

FIXING

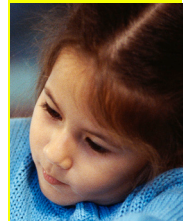

No Child Left Behind

Advocacy Days Pre-Event

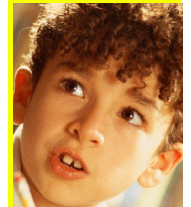

Friday, March 9, 2007, 10:00 AM till 4:30 PM

Doubletree Hotel Crystal City, Arlington, VA

Speakers

Rev. Bernice Powell Jackson, World Council of Churches
George Wood, Forum for Education and Democracy
Monty Neill, FairTest
Molly Hunter, Campaign for Educational Equity
Michael Wotorson, NAACP
Lillian Sparks, National Indian Education Association
Anita Harmon, Principal of Carter Elementary School, Chicago
Sol Cotto, School District of Philadelphia

Join us to learn about what needs to be fixed in NCLB and to learn what you need to share with your own Senators and Congressional Representatives.

Cost: $15.00 (including lunch). Register on-line at <http://www.ucctakeaction.org/fixingNCLB>. For registration information, contact Aisha Howard, 216-736-3714 or howarda@ucc.org.

Make your own Thursday night hotel reservation by calling the Doubletree Hotel, Crystal City, 703-416-4100, and reserving a room under the name "Fixing NCLB Event," at the $179 rate (special rate available till February 9). To save money, double up with a friend.

Scholarships up to $200 are available based on need. Please apply before February 5, 2007 to Aisha Howard, 216-736-3714 or howarda@ucc.org.

Sponsor: National Council of Churches Committee on Public Education and Literacy.

